Last Week's Program

Tim Bishop from the Upcountry History Museum presented our program last week on "South Carolina's First Civil War 1775-1781." He explained that the early settlers in our state were divided between Loyalists in the low country and Patriots in the Upcountry, and how each of these groups played a part in the Revolutionary War, which included some of the most vicious and brutal fighting ever documented in warfare.

Upcoming Programs

July 22	Spartanburg Humane Society	- Angel Cox
July 29	Reclaiming Main Street - From Newton to Spartanburg	- Rich Harwood
Aug. 5	Rotary Update	- DG Tom Faulkner

FUN FACTS

Coby Hennecy

Graduate of USC School of Business (Masters) and Winthrop (BS).
Married to Rick for 20 years and have three children: Cole (14), Caroline (12) and Carter (11). Loves to travel, beach is favorite vacation spot!
Serves on board of LSAA, Girl Scouts Finance Committee, AFP Piedmont Chapter. Currently participating in a medical study on a newer, improved version of Tamiflu.

Richard Schultz

I have been married for almost 14 years and have two children, son Richard (age 10) and daughter Natalie (age 7). I have a BS degree in Public Administration from George Mason University and a Masters degree in Healthcare Administration from Walden University. I like to golf and play/coach soccer. My wife is a flight attendant and we have traveled all over the world. I am a member of the Salvation Army board.

Kimberly Shell

Kimberly was a national baton twirling champion who started twirling at the age of 4 and twirled baton for the Dorman band and Western Carolina marching band. She is known for twirling 3 fire batons at once. Although a bit rusty, she can still juggle and twirl 3 batons still at the age of 43. She is married to a gourmet chef, Shawne Shell of the Hare and Hound in Landrum, who will be featured on the Season 3 of Guy's Grocery Games on Food network this fall. Kimberly used to hate to cook but now enjoys cooking for family and friends. Her passions lie: in humanitarian work, elder care and senior living and Alzheimer's. She is a native of Spartanburg and still lives in the same house where she grew up. She has a stepdaughter who just graduated from UNC Chapel Hill and has an 11 year old daughter, Haleigh Frances. She is currently enrolled in the 2014 Grassroots Leadership Development Institute and is working on her application to become a member of the Kate Berry Chapter of the DAR - Daughters of the American Revolution. She is related to General Andrew Pickens from the Revolutionary War. He is her 8th grandfather. She loves to travel and her last trip was to St. Maarten with family and she also visited their Red Cross while on vacation.
