Last Week's Program

Nayef Samhat and William Gray gave us the background on the new gym complex and Performing Arts Center that will be built on the Wofford College campus. The Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium will house a new basketball/volleyball arena, locker rooms and other facilities. The facility will be adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium. The Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts will be a 67,000-square-foot facility which will house the college's theatre and visual arts programs and will include a 300-seat performance hall along with a museum and a student gallery.

Upcoming Programs

May 26 Piedmont Science Fair Winner - Jesseca Kusher

June 2 Success Stories in the Adult Drug Court Program
- Hon. Judge Raymond Eubanks

FUN FACTS

Sandra Owensby

CEO of Senior Centers of Spartanburg. Hometown Augusta, GA. One Son Richard B. Johnson, an Attorney with Phelps & Dunbar in Mobile, AL. Two beautiful grandkids Morgan and Luke. Stayed single for 19 ½ years after my divorce because I hate to cook. Remarried in 2007 to Filmmaker Earl Owensby from Shelby, NC after assuring him he was not marrying a cook. I know I am in the minority but I had rather watch the grass grow than watch a Cooking Show. Needless to say I am a movie buff. Earl's Movies just went into the History Museum in Raleigh, NC and his displays will run until September 6th. The title of the Movie Displays for all movies made in NC is "Starring North Carolina," and features over 3,000 movies made in North Carolina in the past 100 years. Well worth a trip to Raleigh. Friends say I have song lyrics to fit every occasion. Only female to fully complete the Ropes Course with Leadership Augusta and the United Way Ropes Course in Augusta. Life is too short to go a day without Chocolate! My Ex said I thought I was put on this earth to teach folks how to dress. Love Fashion and Fashion magazines. Founder of "Augusta Suits You" patterned after "Dress for Success." Member of Toastmasters for approximately 14 years.

Thank you to the readers/committee for this year's Youth at Risk Awards Committee. They have selected the recipients to receive $30,000 in youth at risk awards from our club.
