Last Week's Program

Our guest speaker last week was Mike Hollifield, Executive Director of HALTER, which is a Therapeutic Horseback Riding program that has been serving citizens with disabilities from the Spartanburg area and students from the South Carolina School for the Deaf and Blind since 1987. They are currently serving 125 riders per week, with 11 horses in the program. He told us there are two ways to support HALTER, by volunteering and donating.
