Last Week's Program

Dan O'Neal presented our program last week on the efforts being made by Set Free Alliance to free children from the most enslaved country on the planet: India. There are more than 18 million people enslaved in India, most of them children. They rescued 6,700 children in 2016, and graduated 130 students from their "trade not aid" program. These graduates gave back $130K to help rescue more children.
