Last Week's Program

Chamlee Loscuito gave us an overview of the history and the services provided by the Hope Center for Children, which was formed when two strong organizations, the Ellen Hines Smith Girls' Home and the Children Shelter of the Upstate, combined forces to provide a broader array of services to meet the needs of children and families in our community. Their focus is building stable, healthy families and providing children a safe place from abuse and neglect.

Upcoming Programs

March 21 Hub City Animal Project - Valerie Barnet

March 28 Spartanburg Convention and Visitors Bureau - Chris Jennings
