Last Week's Program

Bob Justice and Justin Williams, new Scout Executive for the Palmetto Council of the Boys Scouts of America, gave us an update on the local Council, which was the first in South Carolina and covers 6 counties in the upstate, founded in 1935. They have seen four consecutive years of growth in membership, with over 5,000 youth members and 1500 adult volunteers. They reported over 26,000 service hours in 2018 and 376 community service projects.
