Last Week's Program

Last week we received an update on Ballet Spartanburg from Executive Director Teresa Hough, which will be opening their 55th season next year. She described three facets of the organization: education, outreach and performances. They offer classes for children as young as 18 months old through adult, including ballroom dancing. The company produces 4-5 performances each year, and the Nutcracker will kick off the Christmas season on December 13th.

Upcoming Programs

Dec. 3 Eggs Up Grill - Spartanburg Entrepreneurs
Ricky Richardson, CEO

FUN FACTS

Roger Sullivan

- Played with an undefeated college football team
- Met love of my life in Nashville - she was a client of my firm (to begin with)
- Recently won an unheralded croquet league championship
- Most fun introduction I ever made was of Lance Armstrong (before the fall) to Marlene Porsche of the auto family
- Great-great-great uncle (also Roger) held MLB home run record before Babe Ruth
- Slightly Irish - four grandparents were Moss, McCarthy, Ryan and Sullivan

Please consider buying an advertisement in the program for Spartanburg Sings, or making a financial contribution. Proceeds raised from the event are used to support our Rotary Club's At-Risk Youth Program in which community organizations working with youth throughout the county may apply for grants.
