Last Week's Program

Our guest speaker last week was Chancellor Dr. Brendan Kelly, who spoke about the future of USC Upstate, which he said is focused on the opportunity to continue the growth in the university, which now has over 6300 students and is the fifth largest public university in the state. He attributed their success on bringing in the best talent and providing career relevant programs. During Kelly's tenure, USC Upstate has been recognized by U.S. News and World Report as the No. 1 Top Public Regional University in the South, as the ninth-best baccalaureate college in the nation by Washington Monthly magazine, and as a College of Distinction.

Upcoming Programs

Feb. 25 Spartanburg County Solicitor - Barry Barnette

FUN FACTS

Troy Hanna

From 1997 to 2010, I drove a 1984 station wagon named Sherman.

For 26 years, my shirts have only been white...yes, all types of shirts, only white.

My favorite color is blue, except for my shirts.

I spent my junior year in college at St. Andrews University in Scotland.

My favorite novel is The Great Gatsby.
